THE OHIO COUNTY FAIR.

Bright Prospects for a Most Successful Meeting—Everything in Readiness and a Big Week Expected.

The annual exhibition of the Ohio County Fair commences this morning. Every inch of the fair grounds is a most successful meeting and perhaps the biggest fair the county ever saw will close the week's entertainment. The weather is sublime, the track is in excellent condition and every stall is filled with fast racers and fine stock. Floral Hall is well filled and still filling. Secretary Hall having made forty entries yesterday morning before breakfast time. The auspices are most favorable. Crops have been harvested and well cared for, the times are getting better again, and there is no reason why our fair should not surpass any former meet and the majority of like exhibitions in the State. After a year's hard toil, it is time for rest and recreation, for general hand-shaking, sight-seeing and genial intercourse with old friends, and no time could be spent more pleasantly than that which will be enjoyed this year by the thousands who will attend the Ohio County Fair.

The following parties have arrived with the number of stock as indicated: J. L. Cooper—1. W. W. Bennett—2. Neal & Stockton—3. J. W. Bell—2. E. Stone—2. D. Griffith—1. James Howe—3. Geo. H. Lewis—5. W. Kelly—1. J. W. Hines—4. Geo. Cox—1. W. T. Brown—1. H. L. Taylor—1. W. Taylor—1. C. M. Smith & Bro.—10. B. R. Kelly—5. A. C. Lewis—3. J. A. Elliott—2. R. W. Nickson—2. W. H. Blankenship—3. S. L. Casabier—2. C. M. Igleheart—2. Harry McCown—13. A. W. Bennett—2. Pannell Bros.—6. F. W. Rapier—7. M. S. Cohen—11. A. A. Baird—1. W. S. Nichols—9. John H. South—6. James Bell—1.

For the Benefit of The Church. The Baptist ladies will serve a good lunch and ice cream every day during the Fair at the old Republican office, on market street between Union street and the river, for the benefit of the Baptist Church. Patrons will be served at all hours from 10 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock in the evening. Satisfaction is guaranteed and the patronage of the public respectfully solicited. Don't forget the time and place. The ladies solicit the patronage of the families in town, who want to avoid trouble during the Fair and live cheap. Come around at any hour and they will feed you cheaper than you can live at home.

Some Important Inquiries. The 24th of October an investigation convention, representing the whole State of Kentucky, will meet at Louisville.

The purpose of the meeting is to set before the world in their strongest light the resources of the State and to invite here a class of intelligent and thrifty home-seekers, whose coming would do so much to the business activity of the State.

Every county in the State ought to be represented in the convention, and arrangements are being made to have Ohio county properly represented. With this end in view the Commercial Club of Hartford asks the co-operation and assistance of every public-spirited citizen.

That an intelligent and correct statement may be prepared, THE HERALD presents to each school district in the county the following inquiries. There is certainly in each district some one who will take sufficient interest in this important matter to prepare and furnish us with the information which would be worth so much to the county if properly put before the world.

Please in supplying be careful to make your estimates as nearly correct as possible:

1. How much tillable land is there in your school district?
2. How much forest?
3. How much of this is timbered with marketable timber?
4. How much coal land is there in your district?
5. What is the thickness of the coal?
6. Is the coal being mined?
7. What other natural resources developed and undeveloped have your district?

Answers to these inquiries may be sent to the editor of THE HERALD and will insure a proper and accurate statement of what is so important to every citizen of the county.

Please send in your answers at once. In answering please give the location and number of your district.

Disolution Notice. To Whom This May Concern: I have sold my entire undivided interest in the Pleasant Ridge Milling Company property at Pleasant Ridge, Ky., to J. C. Wadsworth, of this county.

Interest in and to all accounts, due and said firm, and Westernfield assuming all my liabilities in and to said firm, Sept. 28, 1894. J. C. HOOPER, M. D. Pleasant Ridge, Ky.

CENTERTOWN, KY. The Centertown school opened on the 17th inst. with a very good enrollment. The literary society was organized on the 21st under very favorable auspices.

Messrs. T. S. Woodward and E. M. Morton visited their parents Saturday and Sunday. These young men will win laurels as students of Hartford College.

Dr. W. P. Bennett, assisted by Rev. H. P. Brown, will preach the funeral of sister Cynthia J. Ashby, deceased, at Walton's Creek, the third Sabbath in October.

Rev. T. M. Morton, assisted by Rev. H. P. Brown, is conducting a very successful revival at Bro. Morton's church at Nelson Creek Station.

Mr. Will Maddox was elected Vice-President of the literary society Friday night.

Rev. E. V. Phipps reports to your scribe a very pleasant visit to friends in the Pond Run neighborhood. This is his first visit to his old neighborhood for about 10 years. At Pond Run are buried some of his relatives, and while there he visited and mourned up the graves of his mother, whom he survives 67 years, of his brother whom he survives 50 years and of his own child whom he survives 41 years, also of his two little sisters. Bro. Phipps is the only survivor. C. YMBELINE.

The Case of F. L. Deheart. Some three or four years ago F. L. Deheart, commonly known as Robert Deheart, living at Horse Branch, in this county, concluded he needed $25 and in order to get it he applied to the Bank of Hartford for that amount of money and offered the names of John M. Arnold, Wm. Deheart and J. W. Thomas as sureties. The cashier of the Bank, knowing the parties offered as sureties, made out a blank note for the amount and sent it to said Deheart at Horse Branch, and in due course of mail the note was returned, signed by F. L. Deheart, John M. Arnold, Wm. Deheart and J. W. Thomas.

On this, of course, he received the money and from that time on he sent a renewal note and paid the interest until a few months ago he defaulted in the renewal and interest on said note, whereupon a notice was sent to John M. Arnold of this fact. He not having signed the note or authorized any one to sign it, came to Hartford and made the proper affidavit and asked that a warrant be issued for Deheart's arrest. The writ was issued and the defendant, Deheart, was arrested and brought to town and his bail was fixed at $300, which he executed for his appearance on the 17th day of September.

At the appointed time the case was called and continued, on account of the absence of some important Commonwealth witnesses, to September 24th, at which time he was arraigned before his Hon. Judge John P. Morton for the term of the Ohio Circuit court, fixing his bail at $500, in default of which he was remanded to jail to await the action of the next Grand Jury.

The defendant was ably represented by the firms of Guffy & Ringo and Heavrin & Taylor, and the Commonwealth was represented by the County Attorney, F. L. Felix, assisted by Glenn & Wedding and B. L. Kelley.

The proof in the case developed the fact that he had not only been using John M. Arnold's name without his knowledge or consent but had been using and attempting to use numerous other names without any right so to do. After the writ had been issued and prior to the arrest, Deheart concluded that if he could manage to satisfy and take in the notes and destroy them in the Commonwealth would be unable to make out a case against him. But while it made it much more difficult in the absence of the forged instrument, yet in the face of his admissions and the overwhelming evidence of his wholesale business in this line, there was no trouble for the court to arrive at the conclusion that he should be held to answer to the charge of forgery.

You can get a good lunch with the Baptist ladies for half what you can get a meal anywhere else.

Preaching. On Wednesday night before the 24 Sunday in October, (the 10th) Eld. S. T. Fowler, of Madisonville, assisted by Eld. I. H. Teel, of Beaver Dam, will begin a meeting at the court house in Hartford in the interest of the Christian Church. Eld. Fowler is a man of considerable note as a preacher, and his success has been well merited by his splendid pulpit ability and earnest work in the cause of the Master. He will disappoint none who go to hear him expecting a splendid exposition of the Christian religion, and inasmuch as the membership of this church is quite small here, the co-operation of all the good people of Hartford, of whatever denomination, is kindly and earnestly requested. The meeting will perhaps last several weeks.

Conference at Owensboro. The Methodist Conference for the Louisville district will assemble in Owensboro to-day. Rev. W. W. Duncan, of South Carolina, one of the most distinguished bishops of the church, will preside. Not only will all the clergy of the Conference be present, but able ministers will assemble from all parts of the country. The Conference will extend to Monday, October 1st. There will be daily preaching by prominent ministers and Sunday the 30th. All the Protestant pulpits in Owensboro will resound with Methodist eloquence. The bishop will probably preach in the morning and at night. The Conference consists of about 165 ministers and its boundaries include that portion of the State between the Kentucky and Tennessee rivers.

Young men or young women aspiring to any vocation in life should always remember that the bottom rounds of the ladder of time are filled to overflowing, but there's always room at the top.
